NO GAIN

There is no gain without pain...

Recognising this, SANGONeT's Executive Director, David Barnard, will run the 250km Sahara Race from 2-8 October 2011 in Egypt as part of the 2011 SANGONeT "No Pain No Gain" fundraising campaign.

The Sahara is the hottest desert in the world with average daily temperatures expected to reach 50°C during the race...

Solving the development challenges facing our country requires dedication and commitment. David's participation and ultimate completion of the Sahara Race gives real meaning to our campaign slogan - "No Pain, No Gain".

Money raised will support the work of SANGONeT and four other NGOs at the forefront of development and community work in South Africa, namely the Endangered Wildlife Trust (EWT), Cancer Association of South Africa (CANSAs), Starfish Greathearts Foundation and SCORE.

The campaign is also raising awareness about the work of TechSoup Global in Africa.

SANGONeT is a South African non-profit organisation that supports other non-profit organisations in various parts of Africa to use information communication technology for social change and development.
